To my Weavertown church family,

Greetings to all. I thank you, thank you for the generous gift that was my share for widows. My first thought was, The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. We as a church are delighted to have 8 youth in instruction class, besides one middle-aged couple and other men who sit in and want more teaching of God's Word, who are from nearby.

This past Wednesday evening we enjoyed the Cornerstone school Christmas program. We were blessed to have Alvin Beilers, Aaron Lapps and Raymond Kings join us.

To us here, we are always happy and delighted to have Weavertown folks join us, any time, any occasion. A week ago today, we had a day of snow, what a beautiful day of flakes of all shapes and sizes, finally the grass was nearly covered of all but an inch. That was one day my eyes were glued to the window.

The Lord is remembering us and blessing us with rain showers. God is so good! And my cup is full and running over with gratitude and praise to Him.

Let us choose joy.
